Your Comments: 8% is not enough. If I only put 8% of my attention into my patients as a health care practitioner, no one would trust me with their children or their loved ones. Please consider the impact of your decision and value the water we do have by choosing 100% as the minimum clean up required to enliven our watershed, give thanks and honour to the resources that bring it and guide it to bringing life to the people it serves. Thank you.
